

NOTES: Comparison of -er Adjectives (Jenney Lesson 34 P. 194)

All Latin adjectives that end in -er in the _____...

... has REGULAR COMPARATIVE DEGREE (see Lesson 33)...has a SUPERLATIVE DEGREE formed by ADDING - _____ (M), - _____ (F),
- _____ (N) to the _____ of the positive (NOT the base!!!!)A. The SUPERLATIVE of pulcher, pulchra, pulchrum is

1. Latin: _____ (M)

2. English: _____

_____ (F)

_____ (N)

B. The SUPERLATIVE of celer, celeris, celere is

1. Latin: _____ (M)

2. English: _____

_____ (F)

_____ (N)

Directions: COMPARE the following adjectives from Jenney Lesson 8 (p 45)

Positive	Comparative - Use the base.	Superlative - DO NOT use base...
liber, libera, liberum ENGLISH: _____	M/F _____, N _____ English _____	M _____, F _____, N _____ English _____
miser, misera, miserum ENGLISH: _____	M/F _____, N _____ English _____	M _____, F _____, N _____ English _____
pulcher, pulchra, pulchrum ENGLISH: _____	M/F _____, N _____ English _____	M _____, F _____, N _____ English _____
sacer, sacra, sacrum ENGLISH: _____	M/F _____, N _____ English _____	M _____, F _____, N _____ English _____